Civil Air Patrol TX – 645 AFA 1Q2025 Quarterly Report
March 10, 2025

The Texas Civil Air Patrol (CAP) TX – 645 Majors Composite Squadron continues to excel to meet CAP expectations (Jan – Mar 2025). Since the 4Q2024 report, on December 9th, the CAP GP II CC visited and on Dec 16th the Squadron hosted its holiday party which included a white elephant exchange. Over the holidays, we had six cadets attend the CAP Airmen Leadership School (ALS).

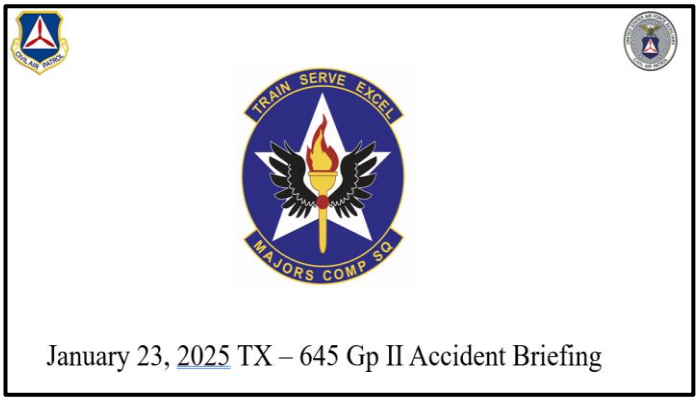

Upon the turn of the new year, TX – 645 visited the American Legends Factory in Sulphur Springs, TX and both Cadets and Senior Members (SMs) toured the plant. The tour included observing the restoration of older Piper aircraft as well as the reproduction of modern-day Piper aircraft.

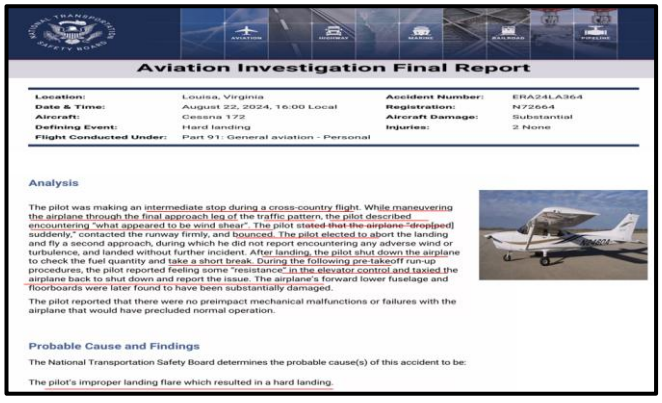

Also in January, TX – 645 received approval of its new squadron patch design while the TX 645th aircrews prepared for the Wing Air Safety Review by table topping and presenting an aircraft accident evaluation during the 3-hour Wing Review. The goal of the event was to place increased emphasis on aircraft operations.

In January, the TX – 645th continued the rocketry program started last quarter and that will span through July 2025. Finally, the cadets initiated a new honor guard focus with the intent of creating a competitive color guard team by the end of 2025.

On February 3rd, TX – 645 hosted its Awards Reception which included a Change of Command officiated by Lt Col Choya Shanahan. Cdt 1Lt Jochebed Huddleston relinquished her command to Cdt 2Lt Sabrina Graham who will lead the TX – 645 Cadet Corps through 2025. The USAF Big Safari 645th Commander, Lt Col Isaac Adcock spoke about his career choices and how it led to his success.

February set the stage for planning a number of future events. The SMs agreed to host a Car Show Donation Campaign during the May 17, 2025 Greenville Barn Stormer event. Planning has begun for that event and our Summer Aviation Education Week Tour as we initiate focusing on Geographic Information Systems (GIS) and Communications training with the goal to put the TX – 645 SQ at the forefront of TX CAP Missions. This coupled with our Mission Pilots will build towards a continuing training program for the coming years.

CAP has decided to transition from Google Accounts to Microsoft Outlook accounts. By doing that, all CAP TX-645 Senior Members have received outlook email accounts, outlook training and initiated MS Teams meetings. Also, an analysis on our communications equipment to upgrade our local Greenville capabilities to better serve the community, Hunt County and provide future outreach for future disasters.

TX-645's two CyberPatriot 17 Teams – Code Blue (High School Age Cadets) and Code Red – (Middle School Age Cadets) received a t-shirt, sticker and a participation certificate. Both teams competed at the State Level. Code Blue earned the Platinum Status and competed against other Platinum Status teams.
